LAUDS WHITE

ASSEMBLYMAN WHITE GETS WORDS OF COMMENDATION FROM MATTISON B. JONES

Sacramento, Cal., April 12, 1919.
Mr. A. T. Cowan,
Editor Glendale Evening News.

Some years ago I heard a public official make a statement like this:

"The greatest satisfaction I have in the performance of my duties as a public official is the statements of my friends to the effect that I am performing my duty."

For the last two days and last night I have been in attendance upon the sessions of the California Legislature because of my great interest in certain legislation now pending and because of my general interest in the work of that body; and I have had splendid opportunity to observe very closely and fully the work of Honorable John Robert White, Jr., Assemblyman from our District. I take great pleasure in speaking a word to a large portion of his constituency through your columns concerning him, because it is due him. Mr. White is continuously on the job. He is an indefatigable worker and is closely observant of not only his own bills, but apparently of all other bills. His experience in business has enabled him to readily understand in this new sphere of his activity how easy it is in the rush of legislation for very objectionable measures to meet with approval for lack of due consideration by the different legislators and likewise because of lack of time in many instances. These closing days of the session are crowded to the rim, and it is a great compliment that I desire to pay to Mr. White in saying that he answers every roll call and his answer, in many instances, is the emphatic "No," especially in matters of appropriations. He is a veritable "Bull Dog of the Treasury." Appropriations are mounting skyward and they would mount yet higher, if it were not for such men as Mr. White. It is perfectly apparent that his influence in the Assembly is very strong and justly so. His remarks on a bill are brief and to the point. As a constituent of his I heartily congratulate his entire constituency upon having at this particular time in the legislature a representative of the virility, force, and effectiveness of Mr. White.

Very truly yours,
MATTISON B. JONES.

MATTISON B. JONES IN NORTH

Mr. Mattison B. Jones went to Sacramento last week to look after the interests of an educational bill he was anxious about the passage of. He wrote Mrs. Jones Friday that the committee to which it was referred, reported it out favorably. He is in San Francisco this week attending a Masonic conclave and will not be home till next week.

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES

MISS ELIZABETH JACKSON ENTERTAINED BY FELLOW TEACHERS SATURDAY

Miss Elizabeth Jackson, who recently resigned her position as teacher in the Intermediate School because of her approaching marriage, was the guest of honor at the annual dinner of the faculty of the school which was also a farewell affair given for her by her fellow teacher, Miss Lulu Wooldridge at her home in the Tight Apartments Saturday evening, when the members of the teaching staff were entertained. On account of illness not all were able to be present.

The guest list included besides the honoree, Miss Frances Jackson, Miss Noble, Miss Jones, Miss White, Miss Duncan, Miss McPherson, Miss Midcalf and Messrs. Blanford and R. D. White.

The bride-to-be was also the special guest at a Saturday afternoon affair at which Miss Frances Jackson of 346 W. Wilson avenue was hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Maude Jackson. It was a hosiery shower and quite an informal social afternoon. Guests who enjoyed the opportunity for a farewell visit with Miss Jackson, and the hospitality of the hostesses were: Misses Gladys and Margaret Sharpe and their sister, Mrs. George Hough, of New York, Misses Laura W. and Louise Brown, Miss Margaret McPherson, Misses Lillian and Birdie Shropshire.

Miss Elizabeth Jackson has been the recipient of many other social attentions from friends who have been cognizant of her plans and whose good wishes will follow her. She will leave Tuesday for Chicago where her marriage will take place at the home of her brother some time within the next fortnight.

PEACE AND GOOD WORKS

EX-MAYOR WOODBERRY ANSWERS CRITIC OF PROPOSED P. E. LOOP

Editor Glendale Evening News:

Dear Sir:—Also being a resident of the City of Glendale, a taxpayer and a subscriber to your paper, and having read with interest the different articles in said paper relating to the proposed extension of the Sycamore Canyon Road as proposed in the petition presented to the City Council, on, or about April 3d last; may I crave your indulgence while I remark that I wish to say that I had hoped that now when Wilhelm's wicked war is over, when ever youthful spring smilingly salutes a happy people, that at last we might have peace with good works as a crown. Has it not been definitely settled beyond peradventure that a mere man will believe anything a woman (the right woman) tells him? There is no question about it, but there is a question whether after every man and woman of the City of Glendale has accepted the invitation to call at 1233 Boynton St., they will be unanimous in believing as they are told that there is about to be committed in this city of homes a dubious, dark and direful proposed crime, that this crime is to be committed with malice aforethought and that the conspiring prospective criminals include all classes of our citizens from the high up and mighty real estate man down to the humble banker and minister of the gospel, and so it is that I wish to say that I fear the people may not

ADVOCATES PARK

REV. COLE URGES CONSIDERATION OF PARK AND CIVIC CENTER PLAN

As one of his announcements preceding the sermon, last night, Rev. Clifford Cole, of the Central Christian Church, stated his intention of being present after services Tuesday evening, at the meeting to consider the question of bonding of the city for a $200,000 park and memorial to our service boys.

He said he had had the honor of representing the church on the committee working on the plan, and he gave it his hearty endorsement, urging close consideration and favorable action by his congregation. Rev. Cole is an enthusiastic booster for Glendale and has been from the first a hearty advocate of the plan to establish this park as a memorial to our soldiers and sailors.

DOG TAXES

With a canine population of between 600 and 700 only about 200 Glendale dogs are properly accredited at the City Hall. So reports City Clerk Sherer, who is today sending out the dog catcher to round up the delinquents and incarcerate them in the dog pound unless their owners come through with the $2 a year, a small sum to pay for the privilege of keeping one of these household pets or guardians, as the case may be. The dog tax goes into the general fund and yields the city about $1,200 annually.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR

INAUGURAL BALL AT ELKS' CLUB HOUSE PAYS PRETTY TRIBUTE TO 160TH INFANTRY

The inaugural dance at the Elks' Club House Saturday night was quite a brilliant affair with a large attendance. The hall where the dance took place was beautifully decorated with sprays of bridal wreath and red roses by the committee in charge of arrangements, Messrs. A. H. Dibbern, J. F. Hearnshaw and R. D. Angelica. Gentlemen were in evening dress and ladies beautifully costumed.

The grand march was led by Exalted Ruler Cameron D. Thom and lady, and ended in the figure 160 in honor of the 160th Regiment, which returned Saturday to Los Angeles and to which all of Southern California wishes to pay its tribute of respect.

Besides the dance numbers, a very pretty program of fancy dancing was provided by Mrs. Pearl Keller, pupils in her ballet class giving the Irish Jig, the Highland Fling and other numbers which won warm praise. Robert Lehman also furnished some song and dance numbers which delighted the dancers.

A solo by Norman Otis, whose beautiful voice is always enjoyed, completed the special program and the balance of the evening was devoted to the dance. Fruit punch was served throughout the evening.

TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT POSTPONED

PLANE TRIP OF MAJOR WOODS, WHO WAS TO START FROM IRELAND TODAY, DELAYED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, April 14.—The Admiralty announced today that Major Woods had postponed his proposed trans-Atlantic flight which was scheduled to start from Ireland today. High winds necessitated the delay.

MUNICH SITUATION CONFUSING

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY AND REPORTS SHOW BOTH ARE MAINTAINING SEPARATE GOVERNMENTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Berlin, April 14.—Dispatches from Bavaria say that War Minister Noske has threatened to send a military expedition against Munich.

The situation at Munich is confusing. Reports show there has been much street fighting, but do not show who fought or who won. There has been a rapid succession of reports, saying, first, that the government had overthrown the soviet, then that the soviet was in power, and finally that both sides were maintaining separate governments. It is believed here that it is impossible for even the people of Munich to know exactly which side has the upper hand, the changes are coming so rapidly.

LLOYD GEORGE OPENS LEAGUE DISCUSSION

PRESIDENT WILSON TO ISSUE A STATEMENT VERY SOON. ADMINISTRATION LEADERS OPTIMISTIC

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, April 14.—Leaders of the peace council are beginning to inform the world of their deliberations. Lloyd George is scheduled to address Parliament tomorrow on the subject of the peace conference. It is understood that President Wilson will issue a statement soon, perhaps tonight. He is acting in accordance with his promise of "open conventions openly arrived at."

Administration leaders here seem optimistic in their discussions of the League of Nations covenant as amended, believing it now meets the Republican objections. The discussion, however, is guarded.

Senators opposing the league are asking whether the revised covenant will make Germany a member of the league and whether Bolshevik Russia will become a member, and what will happen when the league fails to reach the unanimous decision required on grave international questions.

DEMOCRATIC CHARGES DENIED

HOUSE LEADER MONDELL DECLARES REPUBLICANS WILL NOT UNDO DEMOCRATIC CONSTRUCTIVE WORK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, April 14.—House Republican Leader Mondell today denied Democratic charges that the Republicans intend to undo all the constructive work accomplished during eight years of Democratic control in Congress.

He declared: "The Republicans will be too busy wiping out the bad things to destroy the good things."

He said the Republicans would not interfere with the federal reserve system, the parcels post, the law creating a Department of Labor, the Webb-Kenyon law, the Sherwood pension act, the federal trade commission, rural credits, the law giving federal aid to road building, or the law permitting combinations for export trade.

He said some of these laws may be extended and amplified, but none of them will be crippled.

BATTLESHIPS FROM OVERSEAS

NAVAL CRAFT WHICH CO-OPERATED WITH THE BRITISH FLEET IN NORTH SEAS STEAMING INTO NEW YORK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

New York, April 14.—One hundred and three warships, which co-operated with the British fleet in the North Sea, began steaming into New York Harbor this morning. They are arriving twenty-four hours ahead of schedule. The first units arriving were the destroyers, many still showing their battle scars.

The battleship Pennsylvania, carrying Admiral Mayo, is expected late this afternoon.

TO CONSIDER ITALY'S DEMANDS

CLAIMS TO FIUME ARE UNDER CONSIDERATION TODAY BY PEACE CONFERENCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, April 14.—The "Big Four" of the peace conference met today to consider Italian claims to Fiume.

MARTIAL LAW IN SAXONY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Copenhagen, April 14.—A Dresden dispatch says that martial law has been proclaimed throughout Saxony.

THE BELGIAN SPIRIT

BELGIAN INDUSTRIALS PROPOSE TO SHOW THE SAME COURAGE THEIR SOLDIERS HAD

At work upon the City Library on Harvard street is a Belgian workman, Robert B. Lamnens, who is repairing the cement cornice and trimmings. He has relatives still remaining in Belgium from whom he has letters. One which he received from his brother-in-law, George O. Doulcerson, engineer, dated Brussels, January 8th, contained these statements of conditions there and the faith the Belgian people have in America:

"In order to put our country on its feet we need Men, that is to say Americans—Men who have the will and the daring. Here they discuss a lot and accomplish absolutely nothing. Our hope is in the United States because if they do not send us raw materials and food, a revolution will unfortunately come. They left tens of thousands of Germans in Brussels. They have half killed us and still they feed them. They even feed Germany after they have taken everything; ruined our health, our factories, stolen our machinery, even murdered en masse innocent women and children. The hatred for this damned race will never die and we must force this on the minds of future generations. We hope to be able to build up life anew on these ruins. We go at it bravely, and I personally hope to get my business in shape again in five or six years and come to America to gather new ideas.

"We are in darkness as to intellectual development; we have lost track of everything. Fortunately, there remained with us a Will, the one to laugh and be cheerful through it all, to never, never bow before the enemy, to leave him to take everything rather than to give in to his orders. This idea of overcoming at all costs certainly kept us erect, face to face with the traitors without flinching, but the detention has been terrible, we feel now like children toward you men. We must go through a training anew, we must get back to work without tools, without raw materials, without capital because we remained practically idle rather than drive a nail for the enemy. We have some copper that we had hidden and there also remains courage to begin anew, no matter what happens. We shall triumph a second time and we shall show that the Belgian industrials have the same courage that their soldiers had.

"You will do a great deal if you help spread propaganda for Belgium. We need materials, new methods—in a word we need everything."

POLISH COMPOSERS

PADEREWSKI AND OTHERS STUDIED BY MUSIC SECTION AT HOME OF MRS. E. BRYANT

Of unusual interest was the program enjoyed by members of the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club who were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Bryant of 361 Vine street.

Polish composers was the theme of the day entertainingly handled by Mrs. Albert D. Pearce in a paper covering those of outstanding genius whose names are familiar to the world. There are thousands of lesser lights, however, for Poland, as she explained, is a land of musicians and music lovers, a land in which music has been a solace and inspiration during dark days in its history. Chopin and Mendelssohn were included in her list. The first named because his mother was Polish, though his father was French, and both countries claimed him. He went to Poland to establish a home and married a Polish woman, so the little land has a definite claim upon him. In like manner Germany and Poland contest the credit for Mendelssohn. A considerable part of the paper was given to Paderewski, now so much in the lime light on account of his political activities which she reviewed at some length because of their great interest at the moment. She also spoke of Joseph Elsner.

Mrs. Hagood and Mrs. Bryant played a number of selections requested by club members to illustrate the character of the work of these composers and their likeness to each other which constitutes a national quality.

Several vocal selections were contributed by Mrs. Frank Arnold. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Tuesday.

MRS. EMIL F. THOLEN

DIES OF PNEUMONIA SUNDAY NIGHT WHILE DR. THOLEN IS ON HIGH SEAS

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. Emil Tholen of 819 South Brand boulevard suffered a great shock when the news circulated that she had passed away at nine o'clock Sunday night, April 13, 1919. She had been ill for only a week and succumbed to pneumonia which followed influenza. Dr. Tholen, who enlisted in Hospital Unit No. 35 about a year ago and who has been in service in France, is on his way home and is expected to land in New York today. Funeral arrangements will be subject to news from him, the remains being in charge of the Scovern Company.

Mrs. Tholen was a member of Chapter L. of the P. E. O. and much beloved by all the members of that organization and in a social circle of young married people in which she and Dr. Tholen were prominent. Her death is deeply felt by all these friends. The absence of her husband and the fact that her father, Addison B. Shephard, who made his home with her, has now lost the last of his family and only near relative, increases the pathos of the situation. Mrs. Tholen leaves a little son, Robert, about three years of age, who is now in the care of her friend, Mrs. Eames.

TEACHERS DINE

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harwood of 208 East Cypress avenue entertained the teaching staff of the Cerritos School Wednesday evening with an elaborate four-course dinner. Pink and white Cherokee roses were beautifully employed in the floral decoration of the table, at which covers were laid for Mrs. Curtiss, Miss Douglass, Miss Atwood, Miss Ball, Miss Small, Mrs. Emery, Miss Hammill, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. E. B. Moore, Mrs. Eleanor Glassburn, and the host and hostess.

DEATH OF JOHN PETERSEN

By a strange fate John Petersen, 408 Arden avenue, passed away of pneumonia, yesterday, April 13, 1919, at the home of his son-in-law, John M. Dewar, 408 Arden avenue, after but seven days' residence here. His wife is lying at the point of death of the same disease at their home in Los Angeles, and he came to Glendale because the home was crowded and room was needed for the nurses who are caring for her. He himself was taken down and succumbed as stated, Sunday. He was 78 years of age, was a native of Sweden, but had spent most of his life in the United States. He was a retired contractor and has lived in California for about seven years. The remains are at the Scovern Undertaking Parlors and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

ELMER HOFFMAN HOME

REACHES GLENDALE SUNDAY MORNING AFTER SERVICE IN ARGONNE AND GERMANY

Elmer Hoffman, son of Mrs. Nettie Hoffman of 1214 E. Stanley avenue, who was in service overseas for ten months with the 37th Engineers, reached home Sunday morning and spent one of the happiest Sabbaths of his life. His mother has been anticipating his arrival for some time as he reached Newport News March 20th. Ten days were spent at the Presidio in San Francisco where he received his discharge. He is going to take a couple of weeks in which to rest and renew acquaintance with his friends and will then look for a job in his old line of work, plumbing.

As the engineers were the pioneers of the railroads, he was with the first troops to enter Germany, crossing the Rhine December 1st and reaching Coblenz, December 6th. But the engineers did not remain with the army of occupation; were sent back in January and had no experience with Bolshevism. Everything was orderly at the time he left Germany and the people had enough food of some kinds. They were short of bacon, sugar and white flour, but had oats, rye and other grains and an abundance of vegetables. He saw service in the Argonne and has a vivid impression of what war is. Like all the rest of the American boys he is very glad to be home again.

Mrs. A. B. Woodard of Nashville, Tenn., is a guest in the home of her son, Bert Woodard, of 214 North Maryland avenue, and expects to be here for about three months. She attended the Inaugural Ball Saturday night and is much impressed with the beauty of Glendale.

7 TO 4 IN FAVOR OF ANGELS

Angels and Cubs battled for honors in today's game of the Major League schedule at Intermediate. The contest ended 7 to 4 in favor of the Angels. A home run was made in the first inning tieing the score. In the second inning Lindley and George Moore made home runs. In the 4th inning James Gonzales made a home run. The chief pitcher of the Cubs was Henry Blanchard and the pitcher for the Angels was Horatio Butts. Other players who made a good record were: Harold Thomson, Earl Smith, Albert Bryant, and George Moore.

ATTEND THE MASS MEETING

Are you a citizen of Glendale, a real live, active fellow? If you are, come out to the mass meeting, tomorrow evening, at the High School auditorium, and let everybody know just how you stand on the Civic Center question.

THE WORLD'S TRAGEDY

The events of the last week in the life of the Master, leading up to the climax of the Resurrection morn form a fruitful theme for reverent discussion by ministers of all Christian churches. At the Central Christian, Pastor Cole will speak on subjects announced in the Evening News and will illustrate his sermons with stereopticon views of events occurring on the different days of the week. He has secured some very fine slides for these views and they will add vital interest to the sermons. Special music of a very high order will be an attraction each night. Mr. Luther Solt, of the Bible Institute, Los Angeles, the regular choir leader, will be present each evening and direct the music. A cordial welcome will be given all.

AFTERMATH OF FAREWELL PARTY

In the festivities which attended the farewell party for Miss Elizabeth Jackson at the home of Miss Wooldridge Saturday evening, a gay time was enjoyed by the twelve teachers of Intermediate who were able to be there. One who was present reports absurd games played, one of which followed the distribution of red hearts and sticks of gum which guests were requested to mould into representations of their ideals, mounting them upon the red card. One guest modeled a very good dollar sign. Others made suggestions of a "home," still others made soldiers and sailors. Another game similar to charades represented scenes at the peace conference and the home comings of soldiers. In this last part, Miss Elizabeth Jackson was a prominent figure carrying a traveling bag which she was later instructed to open and which she then found contained a dozen silver soup spoons, a butter knife and sugar shell of the same pattern, the gift of her fellow teachers. Guests were then ushered into the dining room where a "bride's table" was discovered daintily decorated with strands of sweet peas beaded with puffed rice, festooned from the chandelier to a circle of bridal wreath, a miniature bridal couple standing under a bell of the same. The places of guests bore their stage names in the little play given at the school a week ago. After the refreshments had been enjoyed, pink ribbons were drawn which brought forth fortunes which had been hidden under the circle of bridal wreath. Under the spell of that glimpse into the future, guests departed after uniting in a wish that all possible happiness may come to Miss Jackson in the Kentucky home to which she is going.

Bess Phillips, Esther Schremp and Catherine Phillips, members of the Phi Kappa Gamma Sorority, are home from a three-day Sorority house party at Hermosa Beach.

The automobile section of the Evening News has been getting the undivided support of the dealers. There is no reason why Glendale should not be a prominent automobile center.

Mrs. G. B. Woodberry of 119 South Glendale avenue is expected home from Nogales where she has been spending the winter with her daughter. Miss Woodberry will be here in about a month.

A WELCOME

We welcome you back, our heroic sons,
Who fought for a world and won.
We welcome you back to this land of ours,
Because of the deeds you have done.

We welcome you back with honor
Because of the world you have saved.
We are joyous because the Huns
Have learned we won't be enslaved.

We welcome you back because you made
This world a habitable place,
Because you did what you started to
Made it safe for every nation and race.

Personals

Paul Neer and family have moved from 215 East Harvard to 364 West California avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sellers of Hanford are visiting their cousin, Francis J. W. Henry, 224 Arden avenue.

Wm. Chappell starts Tuesday for Holden, Mo., to spend six months with a daughter living there and a son living in Bloomfield, Ia.

W. H. Harrison of 204 Cypress avenue spent the week-end in Long Beach as the guest of his son and family.

Mrs. E. E. Harwood had the pleasure of entertaining her cousin, Mrs. Hoskins, and little daughter, from Santa Ana Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacoby of 212 East Cypress avenue have left the city in the expectation of going to Arizona to live. Mrs. Jacoby at present is visiting friends in Sawtelle.

Mrs. Pearl Guernsey is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Harrison, on West Park avenue. She is recuperating from a severe attack of influenza complicated with other troubles.

Mrs. A. H. Dibbern will accompany her house guest, Mrs. W. E. Spann, when she leaves Tuesday for her home in Alameda, and will spend about two weeks in the Bay City. They will motor up and are anticipating a beautiful journey through blossoming orchards and green valleys.

Mrs. E. B. Moore of South Maryland avenue was a guest at a dinner party given by Rev. C. E. Cornell of Pasadena last week to members of the faculty of the Nazarene College whom she was invited to entertain with readings. She so pleased her hearers that she has a standing invitation to visit the college and entertain the students in a like manner.

Mrs. F. G. Volkhart of 407 Lomita avenue was hostess Thursday at a very pretty luncheon at which California poppies centered a table at which covers were laid for Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. Echelberger, Mrs. Earl Bond and daughter, Leonor. In the afternoon Mr. Bond took the party in his new Oakland 6 for a pleasant auto trip.

Mrs. Hattie E. Gaylord of 1134 E. Lexington Drive is having the pleasure of entertaining two aunts from Redondo Beach, Mrs. Henry Peterson and Mrs. R. M. Campbell, who will be with her for a few days. Saturday she enjoyed a call from Congressman Randall and Mrs. Randall. It is the first time she has seen him since his return from Washington about a month ago. She and the Randalls are old friends.

The audience at the Community Sing Thursday evening was larger than usual and enthusiasm was at one hundred per cent. The part-singing especially delighted the leader who pronounced it very fine. Because the auditorium will be in use by the school on the 24th of April, there will be no Sing that night, but it will be held as usual Thursday, April 17th, when there will be practice in the songs to be sung at the Hollywood contest.

Mrs. Anna L. Smith is in quite a serious condition at her home, 327 Riverdale Drive, as a result of a stroke of paralysis Sunday. She had a similar seizure about two years ago. Relatives are with her, and her millinery store, which is closed today, will be open Tuesday and Wednesday with some one in charge to meet all customers who had orders there or other business needing settlement. The store will probably be closed as there is no prospect that Mrs. Smith will be able to resume business for some time to come.

NOTICE

On account of the illness of Mrs. Anna L. Smith, her millinery store at 133 South Brand will be closed today but will be open Tuesday and Wednesday with some one in charge to meet customers having orders there or other persons having business matters demanding settlement. 189t1

FIRST METHODIST

Easter week services were announced yesterday at the First Methodist Church, to be held in the lecture room each evening except Saturday, this week from eight to nine o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Chas. H. Scott, will have charge of all the meetings, and will preach tonight and Tuesday night.

Wednesday night Mr. James Jones, "The Railroad Preacher," will speak. Last week he told his life story, and at the close of the service was invited to return to preach. Mr. Jones is a unique personality, having no literary education, but a remarkable spiritual insight and gift in striking forms of statement of religious truth. He works constantly at railroading and speaks at religious meetings frequently when off his run.

Thursday evening Dr. J. J. Kingham will give a stereopticon lecture on "India Where Caste Was King." This lecture was postponed from last week.

The Friday night meeting will be conducted by the men of the Methodist Brotherhood.

Easter Sunday will climax these services with the Easter program by the Sunday School in the church auditorium at 9:30 a. m., reception of new members, infant baptisms and Easter sermon at 11 a. m. and Easter cantata at 8 p. m.

CHAPTER A. H. OF P. E. O.

Chapter A. H. of the P. E. O. met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Amelia Wattles on South Glendale avenue. Luncheon was served at noon as usual, and the afternoon was devoted to work and a business session. Delegates to the Grand Chapter Convention to be held at Palo Alto May 6th, 7th and 8th were named, viz: Mrs. Amelia Wattles and Mrs. Abbie Barker; alternates, Mrs. Hal Davenport and Mrs. J. Herbert Smith.

Since the Chapter has adopted a war baby it meets every week in order to increase its funds for that purpose and for its relief work. Next week it will be entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hal Davenport.

TAXES COMING IN SLOWLY

Treasurer J. W. Stauffacher reports that the second installment of taxes is coming in rather slowly and unless the payments speed up, there will be great congestion at the last. It is preferable, he says, to have them come in by check as then the amounts can be entered at night if necessary and get ahead of the game instead of having to wait for payments over the counter. After two weeks from today (Monday), city taxes will be delinquent.

BROADWAY P.-T. A.

On account of the closing of the schools Thursday, the meeting of the Broadway Parent-Teacher Association has been advanced to Tuesday afternoon at 3:15. The business to be transacted then will include the selection of six delegates to the meeting of the District Federation to be held in Los Angeles next week, also the selection of a nominating committee.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Zillah Titcomb of Duluth, who was one of the pioneers in Kindergarten work and who has never lost her enthusiasm. She has established Kindergartens in Maine and Massachusetts and in Minnesota. Her talk will be an unusual treat and every member is urged to come out and enjoy it. There will also be music on the program.

LISTEN TO THIS

Do you want to get in on a high-class investment in an income business property in the heart of the Business District, where your investment will bring you 10 per cent. annually, besides getting the advantage of the increase in value of this boulevard frontage. This proposition is absolutely the best thing in town today, and will merit your investigation.

ETERNITY THE VAST

THINGS WE'LL ALL DO IN THAT MYSTERIOUS REALM

A heart-searching sermon was that preached in the Central Christian Church Sunday evening. The subject was "Things We'll All Do in Eternity." The sermon was preceded by a song service in which were two very fine special numbers, a male quartette, Messrs. Luther Solt, Oscar Whitaker, Clifford and Forrest Cole, and a soprano solo by Mrs. Stohler, of 328 West Colorado, who has a clear soprano voice of great sweetness and power. The speaker began by reminding his hearers of the plain words of scripture, repeated over and over again, that all must appear before the judgment seat of God and give an account of the deeds done in the flesh, whether good or bad. We shall have to give an account of how we spend the money God has entrusted to our care, for the way we dispose of our time, for every idle word spoken, for the way we perform our duties to the church, for the way we conduct ourselves before our neighbors and for the way we raise our children. All these, the speaker made it plain, were not his opinions, but the expressed words of the Savior, as plain as language could be spoken. This sermon created a powerful impression on the audience and was a fitting prelude to the week of special sermons leading up to Easter Sunday's services.

ROBBERY AT DUNCAN HOME

Last Thursday afternoon the home of Dr. A. M. Duncan on San Fernando Road was entered by thieves and all the articles of jewelry belonging to the family, together with $10 in money belonging to Miss Carol Duncan and some miscellaneous articles, were taken. As the loot included some special keepsakes, there is considerable mourning over the loss. Miss Ida Myers, for instance, has lost the class ring which she received on graduation from college, which was very precious to her because of its associations. Police officials were notified at once and have listed the felony with Los Angeles officers of the law who are making effort to trace the culprits. They express the opinion that it was boys or older sneak thieves rather than professional burglars because the belongings of the house were so little disturbed. Two bank books were taken, several handsome lacquer boxes, a bedroom clock and a necklace with amethyst pendant.

"ROYAL WORCESTER"

In no line of manufacturing has a greater evolution been manifest than in corset making. Instead of compelling the yielding female figure to adapt itself to a cage of buckram paneled with a slab of hard wood down the front as in the beginning, manufacturers now study the contours of women and strive to adapt their "moulds of form" to the wearers by providing great variety. Thus our own Williams Dry Goods Store which handles the "Royal Worcester," has twenty-five different styles and is prepared to fit the short, tall, thin or fat, with high bust or a simple girdle, in prices which range from $1 to $4 and thus meet the needs of the average Glendale maid or matron. 189t1 agree at a time when agreement is so alluring, may violently disagree at a time when violence should be hid under a bushel and its light not allowed to shine, in fact more war when we are so war weary.

I wish to say that I am not a stranger in the City of Glendale, that I am not a stranger to the ways men will take when they oppose a beneficent public improvement and seek to convey a false impression by means of half truths and now, Mr. Editor, whatever may be your usual policy, will you kindly lay it aside and be honest for this time, or at least honest enough to tell your readers whether or not the men who for nearly seven years, through many discouraging conditions, have given of their time, money and influence to the end that our City of Glendale, which certain people profess to love yet are willing to stab for what might be termed fowl reasons, might have many more of the pretty homes for which it is noted and reach a full and perfect development; whether or not these men had any promise from the Pacific Electric Railway officials regarding the proposed extension of the road or were they just amusing themselves at the expense of the people because business was dull?

I wish to say, Mr. Editor, that public officials ought to be case-hardened and immune to the thrusts of destructive criticism which unthinking or malicious persons inflict upon them without cause. For instance, the trustees were informed publicly that they would not go on with the present Broadway Improvement for any reason other than one affecting their pockets, but for men working solely for the good of the community on citizens' committees there should be some protection other than resigning in order to avoid committing crimes and thereby lose the right to honest sleep, and I wish to say that I approve any man's desire to own a home, his labor to create one, I sympathize with him if necessary and vital public improvements necessitate the taking of such a home, but I do not mourn without hope in the present instance for I realize that although nothing of the kind is mentioned, not only the law but the impartiallly provided appraisement committees acting under the law will see to it that property so taken will be paid for at fair values. I realize that in the short space of ten months the tendrils of a man's affection for his home will not penetrate to a depth that they may not be removed without such violence as might be if it were ten years, I realize that even yet there are left in Southern California many desirable locations suitable for chickens, cows and homes. I further realize, Mr. Editor, that your stock of the capital I and your patience as well must be nearly exhausted. May we have peace and good works for Glendale.

G. B. WOODBERRY.
